Interesting lot. ..... £80 - 100

78 ✉✈ AFRICAN AIRMAILS 1930-31 Tanganyika Feeder Service. Three registered first flight covers, 1930 (24.DEC) Tanga to Dar Es Salaam, and Dar Es Salaam to Tanga return flight covers and a first flight Mombasa to Zanzibar cover 21.OCT.31, arriving 23.OCT.31. Fine & uncommon trio. ..... £70 - 90

79 ✉✈ AFRICAN AIRMAILS 1931 first flight cover from London to Nairobi, Kenya, flown at a 9d rate, that departed London 9.DEC.31 and arrived in Nairobi, Kenya 17.DEC.31. ..... £60 - 80

80 ✉✈ AFRICAN AIRMAILS 1931 Tanganyika 15c postcard uprated with 20c to pay the airmail rate, cancelled Dar Es Salaam 20.OCT.1931. This card was on the first Dar Es Salaam to Zanzibar flight that arrived 21.OCT.31. An oval Tanganyika Territory Feeder Service cachet is on the front. A long typed message on the back. A scarce first flight card. £50 - 70

81 ✉✈ AFRICAN AIRMAILS 1933 cover with an embossed House of Assembly, Cape Town on the back flap, that was on the first service with the new 1/3d airmail rate. A pair of 1½d's & a pair of 6d (right stamp with the variety 'falling ladder' SACC 60c) catalogued at £110, all cancelled Cape Town 30.AUG.33. One of only five known going to Canada. £50 - 70

82 ✉✈ AFRICAN AIRMAILS 18th Nov 1935 the Imperial Airways 'City of Jodhpur' De Haviland 'Hercules' bi-plane left London for South Africa. This southbound flight, carrying mail only, lost its propeller and made a forced landing in a swamp ten miles North West of Entebbe. The rescuers had to go in by canoe for three miles, and then had to struggle waist deep through the swamp for two hours. The mail was recovered and it reached Entebbe at 8pm the same day. It was checked and then dispatched by road to Kampala. No special markings were applied. This cover from London to Bulawayo, Rhodesia, arrived in Bulawayo on 26th Nov. A very rare cover from this air crash. Plate 5 ..... £250 - 300

83 ✉✈ AFRICAN AIRMAILS 3rd Nov 1935 Imperial Airways Armstrong Whitworth AW XV 'Atalanta' crashed in Kisumu, Kenya, killing no passengers but injuring both pilots. The aircraft was operating southbound service flight AS287 on the route Juba - Kisumu - Nairobi - Broken Hill - Johannesburg. The 'Atalanta' had been delayed two days in Athens due to bad weather over the Mediterranean. After taking on passengers and mail in Juba, the pilots attempted to make up the lost time. At 04:00, in the dark, the 'Atalanta' took off from Kisumu and hit some trees, resulting in a total wreck. The passengers and cargo were transported to Nairobi by the Imperial Airways aircraft 'City of Jodhpur'. This cover arrived in Bulawayo on 5th Nov. A very rare air crash cover. Plate 5 ..... £300 - 350
